FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Jeff Sommer Honored With Executive of the Year Award by the Executives' Association of the San Fernando Valley

Jeff Sommer, President of Now Messenger Service was the honored recipient of the 2008 Executive of the Year Award at the Installation Dinner of the Executives' Association of the San Fernando Valley (EASFV) Saturday Evening, January 24th at the Woodland Hills Country Club. The Executives' Association is a 30 year old premier international business non profit networking organization consisting of business owners and professionals. Individuals receiving this award are carefully scrutinized and reviewed by past recipients of the Executive of the Year Award according to guidelines requiring service within the organization and community and impeccable organizational reputation and performance. Not an easy task as the selection of the recipient must be unanimous.

Mr. Sommer owner of Now Messenger Service has been in business for 25 years a member of EASFV for 20 years serving on many committees over the years. He is a member of the Calabasas, Woodland Hills-Tarzana, Encino and Thousand Oaks-Westlake Village Chambers of Commerce and is a tireless volunteer. "This is among the highest achievements in my life thus far" commented the surprised honoree.

EASFV meets every Wednesday morning, at the Warner Center Marriott from 7:15 to 9:00 am. Reservations are necessary.
